VERSE 1:

There's a way back home for the wandering soul
There's a peaceful calm for the restless one
If you're so far gone you can't see the shore
Just lift your eyes and look to the Lord

CHORUS:

'Cause He's walking on the water, He'll calm your raging sea
No, you don't have look no farther, He's the hope that you need
If your sails are torn and tattered, And the storm just won't cease
Take hold of the hand of Your Savior, He's the anchor of peace
He's the anchor of peace

VERSE 2:

I was breaking down at the end of my rope
When the sweetest sound silenced the noise
He's the Prince of Peace, Oh the waves know His voice
Just lift your eyes and look to the Lord

BRIDGE:

I was far from the peaceful shore
Falling to the hopeless floor
The wreckage of the fallout, there was no way out
Then I saw the lighthouse
I was sinking when I felt Your hand
You put my feet back on dry land
When I was so far down, love made a way out
Thank God for the lighthouse

END CHORUS:

'Cause He's walking on the water, He'll calm your raging sea
No, you don't have look no farther, He's the hope that you need
If your sails are torn and tattered, And the storm just won't cease
Take hold of the hand of the Savior, He's the anchor of peace
He's the anchor of peace
He's the anchor of peace
